East Tennessee Children's Hospital's network of care is the leader in pediatric expertise our community has trusted for 85 years.

READY WHEN YOU NEED US

Most parents do not plan to be at our doorstep with their sick or injured child. They plan for normal days – carpooling to school, juggling activities, or making dinner for their family. But every now and then, it's their day to come to East Tennessee Children's Hospital.

For Trinity, her day to visit Children's Hospital came when her doctor discovered cancer in her leg. Fortunately, her family brought her to Children's Hospital, and over the course of her year-long inpatient stay, she received the best in pediatric comprehensive care.

The 16-year-old from Rogersville underwent extensive chemotherapy to fight off the bone cancer in her leg. She also received physical therapies to help build strength and mobility. But Trinity's care extended well beyond her body to heal her emotional well-being, too. The teenager found a love for expressing her journey through paint while working with Children's Hospital's Child Life department. She received calming distraction from painful procedures through music therapy. And her nurses celebrated every major holiday by decorating her room -- including for an album release party of Trinity's favorite musician, Taylor Swift.

THERE'S AN EXPERT CLOSE BY

Children's Hospital staff and providers are here every day, ready to care for you. Your unplanned days are their expertise. They understand it takes a village, so East Tennessee Children's Hospital offers everything a family needs for growing kids and teens. Families have access to comprehensive resources, including emergency medicine, surgery, more than 32 subspecialties and routine care. Plus, the Children's Hospital network of care includes 14 pediatric offices, 4 outpatient centers, home health care and rehabilitation services.

Because when it comes to your child, East Tennessee Children's Hospital is your village.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE.

You can become a part of our village and help fund life-saving services and programs for children like Trinity.
