Managers Matter: A Relationship-Centered Approach to Driving Employee Engagement

The bottom line for engagement is that managers matter. As a front-line manager you have more control over your employees' engagement levels than any other contributing factor—more than senior management, more than benefits and perks, and even more than money! This workshop is designed for leaders and HR professionals who want to reduce turnover, increase productivity, and build an engaged workforce that is aligned with the goals of the organization.

What You'll Learn

See how immediate managers play a key role in employee engagement and how to equip managers with relationship-centered leadership strategies to drive engagement. Join us for this interactive workshop and you'll learn the critical behaviors managers must demonstrate on a daily basis to drive engagement with their teams.

Why You Will Want to Learn it

Leaders at every level are the biggest determining factor of their team's willingness to go the extra mile or even stay with your company. Dale Carnegie's most recent research found that managers are more likely to have engaged teams when they make engaging them a daily priority. In this workshop you'll learn what managers can do every day, and in every interaction, to make their employees more emotionally and intellectually committed to the organization.

How it Will Help You

Managers Matter: A Relationship-Centered Approach to Driving Employee Engagement is an employee engagement workshop designed to provide you with the tools necessary to create a value-driven culture that will raise confidence levels and make employees feel valued, connected, and empowered to achieve higher levels of performance.

Learning Objectives

- Understanding employee motivation
- Define engagement and why it matters
- Uncover the key engagement drivers and the role of the manager
- Discover three relationship-centered ways to inspire employees to go above and beyond

MATS 32nd Annual Turkey Smoking is November 23rd!

Help us celebrate 32 years of making Thanksgiving easier! Our turkey experts will make sure your turkey is cooked to perfection, and anyone who has tasted our pre-cooked hams will tell you they are guaranteed to leave you wanting more. A stop at the bake sale will give you a delicious, homemade dessert for your holiday dinner as well! While you are picking up, you will also have the opportunity to get some early Christmas shopping done with our selection of local vendors. Let us take care of everything but the side dishes this year! Pre-Sales begin Tuesday, November 1st. Turkey and hams must be pre-ordered. Hams freeze well, so it's a good idea to order an extra to freeze for Christmas dinner. We have a limited quantity that goes quickly! No holds or early orders permitted. Don't be like Clark Griswold this year-Leave the turkey to us! Follow our Facebook for additional updates. For volunteer opportunities and vendor inquiries email Mats4Marketing@Gmail.com
