News from our members, about our members

IMPORTANT MESSAGE

You may notice a slight difference in the appearance of your Chamber Chatter this month. Effective 10-1-26 Microsoft will discontinue their Publisher program. This is the program we have used to produce Chamber Chatter. With the new program we are using, we MUST have all ads submitted in either jpeg or png format. We will no longer convert PDF's. Your ads must be camera ready. We cannot add additional copy. If you have press releases, you may still send those as Word documents. You may send photos to accompany press releases.

KOREAN THANKSGIVING CELEBRATION

Join the Appalachian Korean Association and HOLA Lakeway and enjoy an evening for our first Korean cultural celebration of Chuseok, Korea's Thanksgiving holiday. Celebrate Korean culture, food, heritage, and the growing contributions of Korean-American communities in East Tennessee and beyond.

— Featuring Guest Speakers —

Greg Scarlatoiu

President & CEO, Committee for Human Rights in North Korea (Washington, D.C.)

Born and raised in Romania, Greg later spent 10 years in Seoul, where Korea profoundly shaped his life and career. In 1999, he was named an Honorary Citizen of Seoul. Today, he leads the Committee for Human Rights in North Korea and will share his unique journey, his connection to Korea, and the impact Koreans and Korean Americans have made in America.

Pastor Ted Min

Asheville Korean Baptist Church (애쉬빌한인침례교회)

Pastor Ted Min will open the evening with a special devotion and share from his own life and faith, reflecting on Korea, Korean heritage, and the lasting influence of the Korean-American community.

Korean Food & Culture

Enjoy a traditional Korean Chuseok dinner prepared by Morristown's favorite Korean food vendor Taste of Korea in Morristown, featuring favorites such as bulgogi (불고기), japchae (잡채), rice cakes (떡), and more!
